

Let's follow rules of using the beach properly.

Avoid loud noises at night.

Loud voices or sounds can disturb people living near the beaches. Especially at night, avoid using things or making a loud noise.

Let's keep the beach clean.

Don't throw garbage in the ocean. Please take your garbage home and use the facilities properly like the restrooms.

Be carefully in making fire.

The use of fire on the beach are prohibited.

The Omotehama kaiseki is a place where the endangered Loggerhead turtles lay their eggs. Starting May to October let us avoid making noises from night time to dawn, it is for the turtles to lay their eggs peacefully and go back to the ocean.

Let's avoid accidents on the beach.

Please refrain from going around or beyond the wave-dissipating blocks, it may suddenly collapse or sink. Be careful at times that there is a rapid current. Stay away the beaches when there is a typhoon.
